

Prince Henry of Battenburg.

Following are two verses from a poem by Mr. Alfred Austin, the new poet laureate, which appeared in the London Times of Feb. 6th, the day after the funeral of Prince Henry of Battenberg:

WHO WOULD NOT DIE FOR ENGLAND!
WHIPPINGHAM—SANDRINGHAM,
FEBRUARY, 1896.

Who would not die for England?
This great thought,
Through centuries of glory landed down
By storied vault in monumental fane,
And homeless grave in lone barbaric lands,
Homeless but not forgotten, so can thrill
With its imperious call the hearts of men,
That suddenly from dwarf ignoble lives
They rise to heights of nobleness, and spurn
The languid couch of safety, to embrace
Duty and Death that overcome were twin.

"Who would not die for England?"
Thus He said,
Who at the holiest of all English hearths,
The holiest and the highest, had been given
A seat, an English Princess for his bride,
Now by that hearth weeping her widowed tears,
Bitter and barren as the winter rain—
"It is not meet that I, whom this famed Isle,
This generous, mighty and majestic Land,
Ennobled as her son, should not repay
Her splendid gift of kinship. Let me go,
Go where they go, her world-researching race,
That slumber followed on the half-drawn sword,
And wake, at whisper of her will, to greet
Duty and Death that overcome were twin,
Who would not die for England!"

Malt Nutrine

is one of the most pleasant forms in which the virtues of Malt Extract may be obtained. It is pleasant to take, and is agreeable to the most delicate stomach. It is the Ideal form of a Malt Extract, containing, as it does, less than two per cent of Alcohol and over fourteen per cent of the Malt extractive matter. There are cases on record where patients have gained seven pounds in one week by the use of Malt Nutrine. The most eminent physicians recommend it in preference to any other. Malt Nutrine is made at the brewery of the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association, St. Louis, Mo., one of the largest and most famous breweries in the world, where there is every facility for producing the very best.
